Re: United States v. Roman Storm
23 Cr. 430 (KPF)

Dear Judge Failla:

We write on behalf of our client Roman Storm to respectfully request that the Court enter an order allowing Mr. Storm to obtain a Real ID. As the Court may know, there is now a Real ID requirement for domestic air travel. Mr. Storm does not currently have one and needs to obtain one to travel to meet with counsel and to attend future court appearances. He has surrendered his passport and does not need that returned to apply for the Real ID. Mr. Storm first sought permission from his probation officer, who informed him that he needs to obtain permission from this Court. The defense has conferred with the government and it does not oppose this request.

For all of the above reasons, the defense respectfully requests that the Court enter an order allowing Mr. Storm to obtain a Real ID.

Respectfully submitted,
